Voices for Just Climate Action (VCA) started in 2020 as an alliance with four Southern civil society organizations (CSOs) and two Global CSOs. VCA is now a network that connects almost 200 organizations across seven countries - Tunisia, Kenya, Zambia, Brazil, Bolivia, Paraguay, and Indonesia - at local, regional, and global levels.

LOCAL PARTNERS CHACO-PANTANAL

In the Chaco-Pantanal landscape (Bolivia and Paraguay), VCA has 33 local partners. Among them a diversity of rural and urban civil society organizations, alternative media, and grassroots organizations: some youth led, other Indigenous led or woman led, led by local peasants or rural defenders. Local actions and activities of the VCA-network are being implemented in more than 130 indigenous communities, from 10 different Indigenous peoples (ayoreo, ishyr, mbya guaraní, nivaclé, enxet Sur, enlhet Norte, angaité, ava guaraní, pai, chiquitano), 14 municipalities and several marginalized groups (urbanized, non-organized criollos and others).
